Breaking Bread Winery Marmalade 2023

Erik Miller, winemaker at Kokomo Winery out in Sonoma, Calif., has a serious command of wine science. He wanted to take a crack at the funky side of wine with the Breaking Bread label, and the result is balanced and delicious. Big bright grapefruit and a bit of orange peel and white pepper welcome your nose. The palate is just right with good acidity and abundant fruit with a bitter kiss on the finish to cut through the juiciness. Marmalade for sure!
